Report of Officers:

Councilperson Moss:

Councilperson Evans:

Councilperson Hunt Mayor Pro Tem:

- He thanks all the employees and the department heads for talking to the council and working with the board.

Councilperson Knox:

Councilperson Reid:

- Are the stolen cars in the apartments from leaving the cars running in the winter?

Councilperson Smith:

- Question for the Chief, have you noticed we are having a lot more gun fire?

Public Works Department – Kevin Gibson

- Explanation about the trash trucks being down and stated it is possible to get another trash truck for $12,000.00. He will report to the board
- Discussion over hiring a new CDL driver for the public works department.
- He is in discussion about lowering our dumping fees for the city. An appointment is set, and he will advise the board when he gets it.

Police Report – Frank Mininni

- One of our newer officers got a dog reader for lost dogs. This will save the officers many hours while catching and waiting for the dog catcher to come pick up the dogs.
- St Louis county is trying to move Shots Spotter equipment down towards our area because we contract with St. Louis County.

Citizens Comments:

Tim McDonald 7721 Augusta – Can you tell me about the sale of city hall, are we selling.

Joseph Thomas – I am here again asking about the retaining wall at 7433 Overbrook. Nothing has been done and I am hoping to get an update on when it will be fixed.

Mark Beckmann 1717 Augusta – It would be nice to have the financial statements with the reports.

Becky Harrington – Mr. Singh stated he was giving $60,000.00 in TIF money to fix up the old Lucky's Market on Florissant Rd. I don't have a copy of the plans. He stated he gave them to Patrick Green, and they are lost. He is trying to get another copy to submit to the board.
